SOCIETY

The seventh anniversary banquet of the Phi Delta Kappa fraternity was held at 7 o'clock Monday evening in the Gold Room of the Oliver hotel. Covers were placed for 25 members at a "U" shaped table, bearing a centerpiece of spring flowers. During the dinner, the Big Five orchestra played, and later an informal program was presented. Walter O'Keefe presiding with a group of songs and monologues, while Richard Curry entertained with several unusual recitations.

The W. C. T. U. held the first session of their country institute Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church. The committee appointed for the convention included Mrs. Ethel E. Bair, pres., Mrs. Dora Staples, courtesies, Mrs. Eldora From, membership and Mrs. Myrtle Remme, bulletin. A discussion of state plan work together with the national plan of trip teams for membership drives occupied some time and practically three minute talks for department work were given by various department superintendents. Following the business session, an interesting program was given, the state vice-president, Mrs. Ida Mills, of Kokomo, Ind., and Mrs. Minda Love of Indianapolis, giving the principal address. In the evening, Mrs. Love spoke to the young people at the church and later a playlet was presented by the younger members of the institute. Tuesday morning at 9:30, the institute will open for a morning program, which will consist of music, devotionals and a discussion on the importance of primary elections. Rev. M. M. Rogers will talk on "Recent Prohibition Victories." The afternoon session will begin at 1:30 o'clock at which time "What the Anti-Prohibitionists Are Doing to Overthrow the Eighteenth Amendment" will be discussed by Rev. Grose. The evening meeting will be open to the public and Mrs. Mix will speak on "Law Enforcement."

The Art Department of the Progress Club re-elected Mrs. Frederick Elbel, chairman; Miss Ethel Montgomery, vice chairman; Miss Erythe Brown, treasurer; while Miss Mary DuShane was elected secretary at the regular meeting which was held Monday afternoon at the club house. Following the business meeting, Miss Estel Grantham spoke on the figure painters, Childe Hassam, Elizabeth Nourse and Walter Ufer. Plans were completed for the annual Spring Art Exhibit, which will open on April 2 in the new club house, 322 N. Main st. The next meeting of the department will be held April 10, at which time the subject of "Interior Decoration" will be considered.

The marriage of Miss Alice Murdock, daughter of Mrs. Samuel T. Murdock, of Indianapolis, and Dr. Horace R. Lyons, of Rochester, Minn., will take place April 15th at Indianapolis, with Bishop Lillis of Kansas City, officiating. Miss Murdock, a former student at St. Mary's College, who has a number of friends in this city has just returned with her mother from abroad. The wedding will be a very quiet affair, with only the immediate families in attendance.

The Lincoln Literary club was pleasantly entertained Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Edward Vogt, 1854 Portage av. A talk on "Nature Study" was given by Mrs. Vogt, while Mrs. James Proud had charge of the history study hour. The next meeting will be held April 10 at the home of Mrs. Vern Van Dusen, 1124 Blaine av.

In celebration of the 67th anniversary of the founding of the city of South Bend, the city of South Bend, Ind., will observe the day with a series of events. The first of these is a parade on Monday, March 28, starting at 10 o'clock from the city hall and ending at the high school. The parade will be headed by the city band, followed by the various city departments and the various clubs and organizations of the city. The parade will be a very impressive one, and it is hoped that a large number of people will attend.

The marriage of Miss Margaret Gorman, Lansing, Mich., is visiting Miss Mildred Kersey, 320 W. Madison st. Mr. and Mrs. Olin Schnorr and mother, of Niles, Mich., spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parratt. Jack McClary of Niles, who has recently returned from Florida was a week end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Parratt.

Miss Jean Gammack, who has been visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Gammack, 812 Forest av., has returned to Batavia, Ill., accompanied by her sister, Miss Frances Gammack, who will spend the week there. Mrs. P. Nettie Spriggs, 844 Eighth st., left Saturday for a several months' trip through the east.

Revelations of A Wife

THE WILD ANXIETY IN DICKY'S VOICE AND ACTION.
"You're sure that's the horn of your car?" Pa Cosgrove demanded as the banished-like wall sounded again through the loneliness of the reservoir road.
He and Fred had stopped abruptly at the sound, and I saw the stretcher which held the wounded state trooper sag limply between them.

"Absolutely," I returned shortly, for with this sound had come the conviction that Dicky's hand was sounding the horn. I counted the strokes of the siren. One-two-three. Two short and a long. Yes, it was Dicky's signal. It meant that he and Boss Dean had forsaken the fishing party, and had come up to the car while I had suffered such deadly peril.

Pa Cosgrove took a hurried step forward.
"Who do you suppose is blowing it?" he queried anxiously. "Can it be—"
"That's Mr. Graham's signal," I interrupted quickly, for I felt that I could not bear his conjectures longer. "Then they've found the car, so that's all right," Pa Cosgrove commented with a relieved air. "Come, Fred, shake a leg, we've got to make better time with this poor fellow. Ted, give a call, just one now, so he'll stop that blowing. We don't want to make any more noise than is necessary. Lord knows what mix-up we'll get in on account of this, anyway."

Tomorrow's HOROSCOPE
By Genevieve Kemble
WEDNESDAY, MARCH 29.
A fairly active, but possibly not very propitious day is forecast from this day's stellar operations. The energizing Mars, in trine aspect with the Moon, may be expected to stimulate to fine initiative. He inspires to resolution and bravery, making the faculties bold and aggressive. It may be unwise to enter into any manner of speculation, Jupiter being in unfriendly position. New ventures may be planned, but outlay of money may be hazardous. Happy conditions may be expected in the domestic, social and affectional relations.

Those whose birthday it is may look for an active year, with the energies quickened to new and bold enterprise, but they should be careful not to subject their money to risk in any kind of speculation. Domestic affairs look pleasant. A child born on this day will be enterprising, aggressive, resourceful, popular, affectionate and happy, although possibly leaning to extravagance in the use of money unless carefully trained in thrift early in life.

When you say cigars—say Dutch Masters.
45-1f—Adv.

Advice to Girls
By ANNIE LAURIE
I am very fond of a young man, and would like very much to get acquainted with him. As I see him every day, I am rather bashful, and I would be very glad if you would tell me how I can meet this young man, as I like him very much.

BASHFUL.
You should wait until you can be introduced to the young man by a mutual friend. This is the only proper way to become acquainted with him, my dear.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:
I am a girl 18 years old. Two men, slightly my senior, profess to be very much in love with me, and each one wants me to marry him. At different times I have told each that I loved him, and now I can't bring myself to tell either one that I like the other better. What shall I do? I really love neither of these men.

HATTIE:
Have both of the young men for friends, and be frank with them. If you do not love them, when they ask you again, tell them the truth. And, above all things, do not marry any one you don't truly love.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:
I am 21 years of age, and am deeply in love with a young man of the same age. We have gone together for two years.

HE:
He called to see me every evening until the other evening. I said several things to him in a joking way, and he got very angry with me, and said he would have nothing to do with me any more. He also told me he never loved a girl better than he loved me. How can I win his love back again? I don't want to lose him.
